L/-

Meeting with local guide in hotel lobby and transfer to ethno village. Discover the ancient culture and traditions of Kazakh nomads on this 1-day activity-packed tour to the Ethno Village near Almaty.

- Guest is welcomed in Kazakh tradition by “Djigits” (Kazakh warriors) in the Saka-period battle armor of nomads and spears on the horses and the Shashu ritual
- Guest get to taste the Boursak (puffy Kazakh bread) and Kumis (fermented mare’s milk)
- Visit the primitive Kazakh Yurt & admire the craftsmanship
- Get to know various important aspects of the nomadic way of life, such as everyday tasks like cleaning wool, making yarn with a spindle, and grinding flour
- Learn about the customs and rituals associated with major life events, such as besik toi (putting the child in the cradle), tusau kesu (cutting a rope between a baby’s legs when he or she starts to walk), or atka otyrgyzu (the first mounting of a horse, intended to help prepare a boy for the nomadic life).
- Enjoy generous lunch of traditional Kazakh cuisines
- Enjoy SARBAZ performances where various traditional music and national equestrian games are being performed
- Have the chance to take a short masterclass on traditional cooking, craft, or sport
- Get a chance to have photo session in costumes, enjoy “Altybakan” swing and enjoy the surrounding scenery.

Evening, transfer back to the hotel.
End of service.
